

DR. ERIC ANDREW REYER

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Management – Diverse background in healthcare management and supervision. Hands-on manager with highly-developed planning and organizational skills. Strong abilities in budgeting, financial management and guiding best practice.

Communication – Persuasive communicator with well-developed presentation and negotiation skills. Able to develop productive relationships with colleagues, patients, and staff at all levels.

Mentoring - Superior degree of personal drive to motivate learning and teach others.

Flexibility – Extremely adaptable to constantly changing environments while maintaining a high level of composure and professionalism. Welcomes a varied work environment for constant challenges.

EXPERIENCE

2010-Present Duke Raleigh Hospital Raleigh, North Carolina

Lead Acute Care Nurse Practitioner

- Lead Nurse Practitioner for the Critical Care Service
- Instructor for Critical Care Core Curriculum
- Preceptor for ACNP Students
- Chair and leader of VAP and Code Blue/RRT evidence based practice
- Designed and Implemented VAP protocol reducing rate from 6.4 to Zero

2007-2011 WakeMed Health & Hospitals Raleigh, North Carolina

Emergency Services Preceptor (CNS/Critical Care-Nurse Practitioner)

- Facilitated new standards of care and treatment through research and evidenced based practice standards
- Coordinated and taught educational activities within Adult and Children's ER
- Coordinated, developed, and taught new hire curriculum/competencies
- Hospital coordinator and specialist for Induced Hypothermia
- PRN Nurse practitioner at WakeMed on Critical Care and Pulmonary service
- Developed tracking system of certifications/license for over 400 employees
- Works closely with Physician group to allow for seamless, collaborative care within the emergency departments including EMR PI and enhancement.
- Coordinated research with department and hospital
- Coordinated and implemented new treatment of EBP Sepsis Care
- Coordinated Critical Care Services within Emergency Department

2004-2007 WakeMed Health & Hospitals Raleigh, North Carolina

Nurse Manager - Emergency Services

- Reviewed medical records as needed for quality assurance, discrepancies, best practice, and questions in standards of care serving as the clinical expert
- Facilitated the opening of a 26 bed Observation Unit(s)
- Reduced Length of stay on OBS from 36-42hs to 12-18hrs
- Lead Implementation of 1st inpatient EMR at WakeMed
- Organized Formed and lead hospital-wide Clinical Manager committee.
- Managed Emergency Holding ,Observation, and Chest Pain Units.
- Maintained finances consistently below budget
- Developed and maintained annual budget for Adult ED and above units
- Developed and lead JCAHO peer tracer teams throughout hospital system
- 3 Supervisors(administrative) and 74 employees direct report
- Responsible for Triage efficiency and throughput in AED and CED
- Chaired clinical documentation committee for improved and accurate EMR documentation within emergency services

2003-2004 United States Army Reserve Heidelberg, Germany

Nurse Manager- General Surgery

- Managed a four physician surgery clinic.
- Supervised nursing and ancillary staff.
- Planned, opened, and operated a Minor Surgery and Endoscopy Suite.
- Maintained and formulated policies relevant to clinic operations.
- Planned and maintained budget monthly and quarterly.
- Interacted with all departments, including pharmacy, admissions, inpatient unit, OR, JCAHO coordinator, safety, and administration.

1999-2003 Nursing Agencies/Travel Companies Raleigh, NC

Emergency/Critical Care RN (Contract)

- Adult and Children's Emergency
- Critical Care- Medical, Surgical/Trauma, Neurosurgical, Cardiac, Cardiothoracic Surgical, Mobile Intensive Care, Neonatal ICU

1999 Onslow Memorial Hospital Jacksonville, NC
Staff RN-Critical Care/Emergency

1998-1999 Britthaven of Jacksonville Jacksonville, NC
Nursing Supervisor

- Supervised nursing and ancillary staff at 250 bed skilled nursing facility, which included ventilator and Alzheimer's units.

1997-1998 Coastline Care, Inc. Jacksonville, NC
Executive Director

- Expanded company's service area from one county to four
- Increased level of care from basic EMT to Paramedic/RN.
- Developed a community based education program.
- Managed >50 member staff composed of nurses, paramedics, EMTs and secretaries including 3 managers and 5 supervisors.
- Served on the Onslow County emergency management committee.

1995-1997 Capital Health Services Camp Lejeune, NC
Paramedic Manager

- Established Paramedic service from existing EMT-basic level..
- Created policy and procedures manual as well as emergency protocols.
- Implemented QI/QA program.
- Supervised Paramedics within 911 system and ER.
- Certified at Haz-Mat Operations Level

1992-1998 Independent and Community College Jacksonville, NC
CPR, EMT-I/Paramedic Instructor

- Taught classes for the local community college and private organizations and companies while working full time as a Paramedic for the local EMS system.

EDUCATION

Duke University	Durham, NC
Doctor of Nursing Practice	2011
Duke University	Durham, NC
Post Master's Certificate-Critical Care Clinical Nurse Specialist	2010
Duke University	Durham, NC
Master of Science in Nursing-Acute Care Nurse Practitioner	2009
Campbell University	Buies Creek, NC
Bachelor of Health Science	2004
University of NY-Regent's College	Albany, NY
AS-Nursing.	1998
Coastal Carolina Community College	Jacksonville, NC
AS-Emergency Medical Science-Paramedic	1994 Valedictorian

LICENSES/CERTIFICATIONS

- Acute Care Nurse Practitioner (ACNP-BC)
- Clinical Nurse Specialist- Critical Care (CCNS)
- North Carolina Registered Nurse-RN
- CEN - Certified Emergency Nurse (Expired)
- CCRN-Certified Critical Care Nurse
- ACLS/BLS

ADDITIONAL

Speaker/Educator at following Conferences:

- Vendor area NTI- 2007-2013
- Critical Care Symposium, 2010 Little Rock Arkansas
- CardioThoracic Symposium- Hartford Connecticut
- ENA Chapters – Austin, Houston, and McAllen, Texas
- AACN Chapters- Raleigh, NC, New Haven, CT
- WakeMed Pediatric Conference- Raleigh, NC
- SHINE Conference 2009
- Over 100 other meetings and conferences

Publications

Improved Out-of-Hospital Cardiac Arrest Survival After the Sequential Implementation of 2005 AHA Guidelines for Compressions, Ventilations, and Induced Hypothermia: The Wake County Experience- Annals of Emergency Medicine Vol. 56, Issue 4, 348-57

Commissioned Officer in the United States Army Reserves Nurse Corps.

Honorable Discharge received effective 23 Aug 06. Served as Platoon Commander of 75 enlisted soldiers. Worked in Neonatal Intensive Care at Womack Hospital during drill.