

“Jack” John W Tanner Jr.
John.Tanner@umassmemorial.org

Career Objectives

To maintain a challenging position in the health field to commensurate with my education and experience.

Education

Capella University

Bachelor of Science in Nursing Degree (Graduated June 2014)

Rhode Island College

2004-2006

Community College of Rhode Island

Associates Degree in Nursing (Graduated December 2001)

January 1995 to December 2001

United States Air Force

20th Tactical Fighter Wing Hospital RAF Upper Heyford, UK

Courses in Medication Administration, Emergency Medical Technician, Basic Life Support Instructor, Emergency Medical Technician Instructor, and Advanced Cardiac Life Support.

October 1988, November 1988, January 1990, and March 1990.

United States Air Force

Medical Service Specialist Technical Training School

November 1986 to April 1987

Certificate in Medical Service Specialist

Warwick Veterans High School

Sep 1982 to May 1986

Experience

UMass Memorial Hospital

119 Belmont St
Worcester MA 01605

NICU Clinical Coordinator Feb 2015-Pres

Responsible for directing and coordinating daily departmental function while managing direct reports, developing staff, directing committees.

Women & Infants Hospital

101 Dudley St
Providence RI 02905

Assistant Nurse Manager Aug 2005-Feb 2015

Responsible managing Direct reports, developing staff, directing committees, managing and coordinating the NICU.

NICU Staff Nurse April 2002-Aug 2005

Responsible for managing nursing care of neonatal patients in the NICU. Experience in monitoring ventilator support of neonates, canulations of peripheral IVs, monitoring vital signs, assessing neonates, and precepting nurses to the NICU.

Rhode Island Renal Institute

2736 Post Rd
Warwick, RI

Real Dialysis Technician April 1991 to April 2002

Experience in, initiation and reinfusion of dialysis treatments for End Stage Renal Disease patients. Trained to monitor patients during treatments and to perform minor dialysis machine repairs along with preventative maintenance.

United States Air Force

RAF Upper Heyford, Great Britain

Medical Service Specialist Oct 1986 –Oct 1990

Experience in veni-punctures, intravenous administration, IV fluid and blood transfusion monitoring, medication administration, naso-gastric tube placement, urinary catheterization, respiratory care, suturing and wound care, and EKG recordings.

Professional Accomplishments

Publications

Tanner, J. (2012). Developing a Closed, Intravenous Medication System for a Neonatal Intensive Care Unit. Neonatal Intensive Care Journal 25(4), p21-24

Salera-Vieira, J. & Tanner, J. (2009). Color coding for multiples: A multidisciplinary initiative to improve the safety of infant multiples. Nursing for Women's Health, 13(1), 83-84.

Awards

Outstanding Innovative Program Poster Award by the Association of Women's Health, Obstetric and Neonatal Nurses (AWHONN), AWHONN Convention, Los Angeles, CA, June 2008

Care Award 2007 Bridge Builder Category for Color Coding Initiative

Care Award 2006 Honorary Mention for Bridge Builder Category for Medication Task Force Committee

Poster Presentations

Color Coding for Multiples – A Multidisciplinary Initiative to Improve the Safety of Infant Multiples (co-presenter) at AWHONN Convention, Los Angeles, CA, June 2008 (abstract for poster chosen through a blind review process)